Giovanni Morbin / Performance

Renowned Italian conceptual and performance artist Giovanni Morbin presents a new exhibition and performance in Vienna. The centerpiece of the exhibition is his latest series, "Ozionismo, manifesto orizzontale." It's a exploration of retirement, including a manifesto on the subject. For Morbin, retirement doesn't signify the end; rather, it's a transformation, a shedding of one layer to reveal another, an evolution that continues to captivate, provoke, and inspire. The exhibition in Vienna marks the start of a series of solo exhibitions by Giovanni Morbin in three prestigious institutions. These shows curated by Alenka Pirman and Daniele Capra will span the next four months, taking place from Ljubljana to Venice and concluding in Bologna.
